

Official Song of Asia Association of Education & Exchange

Lyrics : Pratikshya Poudel

Composition : Moeko Nojima

Togetherness is divine
Together we can shine.
Forget our differences
Let all my happiness be yours
And your sorrows be mine.

Sharing our world
Makes everything bright
Bonding makes us stronger
Shed the layers of fright

You and I, yours and mine
Are such selfish words
Let there be only "we" and "ours"
Those who can't are foolish cowards
Why don't we get together
To share our differences?

Togetherness is divine
Together we can shine.
Forget our differences
Let all my happiness be yours
and your sorrows be mine
